

Nili's US CourtScript Adds Hunt Reporting to its Legal Services Portfolio

PRESS RELEASE – September 2, 2020

RA'ANANA, ISRAEL – Nili Capital Partners (“Nili”) today announced that its portfolio company, US CourtScript (“USCS”), a leading global technology enabled court room reporting and transcription company, has completed the acquisition of Hunt Reporting Company (“Hunt”). Located in Baltimore, Maryland, Hunt is a recognized leader in the industry with over 40 years of experience and having built a stellar reputation with many long-standing high-profile clients, including the United States House of Representatives.

Aryeh Bak, CEO of USCS said, “We are excited to begin this new partnership with Hunt Reporting, whose long-standing high-profile customers will add to USCS’s already strong portfolio of quality and long-lasting relationships. We are eager to leverage our industry leading technology and customer service to provide Hunt’s customers with enhanced benefits and quality.”

Geoff Hunt, CEO of Hunt, has joined USCS as a senior advisor. Mr. Hunt stated, “USCS is the perfect partner to further strengthen Hunt’s position in the industry. After being in the industry over 40 years, I am convinced that USCS’s resources, technology expertise and reputation for quality and service will enable Hunt to expand and better serve our customers.”

“The Hunt acquisition is another step in the development of USCS as the premier provider of court reporting and transcription services to the legal and governmental sectors,” said Jonathan Zimbalist, a General Partner with Nili and a Director of USCS. “Our acquisition of Hunt is a perfect example of our strategy to consolidate a fragmented industry, leverage our industry leading technology and customer service, and provide exceptional quality to our clients.”
